WORK PARTY

SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 2015.

THIS IS THE BEST OPPORTUNITY FOR THE
NEW MEMBERS TO GET IN THEIR REQUIRED
6 HOURS OF VOLUNTARY SERVICE.

8:00AM – UNTIL DONE.

BBQ News

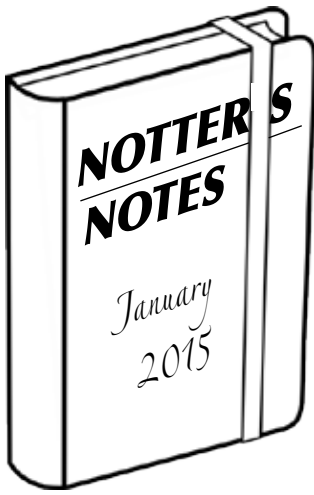

The annual BBQ will be held on Sunday, May 17, 2015. There will be a work party on Saturday, May 16th. The bad news is that due to the rising costs of food, (if you do your own shopping, you know what I'm saying), the price of the dinner tickets for the BBQ will have to be raised. Early bird sales (Was $15.00) will now be $20.00, up to April 30th. Regular price, (Was $20.00) will now go to $25.00, and will be sold from May 1st, up to and including the day of the BBQ. Just think though, where else can you enjoy a fantastic meal, great shooting and fishing events, a huge raffle and silent auction, (with fabulous prizes) and, most of all, the great camaraderie of folks just like you.

Kudos

Many thanks to: The Ladies and Gentlemen of the kitchen staff. Thank you's to Joyce & Frank Alessio, Dorothy & Ken Notter, Mike Marks, Jay Zimmet, Maryanne Bernard, Nancy Cotter & Ryan, Julie Olmstead-Watson, Kathy Brown, Juli Everett and Lucy Nelson. Safety Tip- Before firing, check your barrel for obstructions. You might be surprised at what you find. How about having one firearm with matching ammunition, on the bench at a time. Multiple firearms and ammunition.

HUNTING REPORT

Mike Hinton (Past Pres.) took an Elk in Wyoming in November. This was his first trip to Wyoming since 2003.

RANGEMASTER SOUND OFF

By: Tim Geiser – CRSO • www.crsotim@aol.com

Hope that Santa brought you all the neat “toys” you wanted for Christmas. I also trust that you read all the instructions before you took them up to the range.

A Range Contact Report is a new form developed to keep track of range incidents that do not require a full “incident report” . An example might be a shooter being reminded multiple times that “rapid fire” is not allowed on the EF&GA range. The shooter will be issued a copy and a file copy will be kept. Any questions on the policy can be directed to me at any time.

Over the past several weeks there has been a spate of weapons left on the range. At least two rifles and one pistol that I am aware of. It took a bit of “doing”, but all weapons were returned to their right full owners. My gripe is that it took more “doing” than should have been necessary. If find that you left a weapon on the range, report it immediately. Forget about being embarrassed, any of would be, but this is one reason that signing in at a given range is important. It is much easier to track down who was there and when and might have seen your gun. If you are the one that found the gun, report it immediately to me or any board member. Don’t wait a couple of days. I guarantee that everyone involved will sleep much easier. In fact this applies to anything left on the range. Scopes can be quite expensive and should be turned over to an RSO asap for secure storage until the proper owner can be located.

First- aid boxes are located at each range and are kept stocked for emergency use. If you have need for a band aid or whatever, feel free to use whatever is required. On the other hand if you are looking for first-aid supplies for your next hunting trip give me a call or send an email. I have a number of sources for inexpensive supplies that I will be happy to share with you.

The range lights are still being misinterpreted so let’s try it one more time. The lights are not “COLD RANGE” lights. Obviously there are many situations where a “COLD RANGE” might exist without a need for flashing lights such as a simple cease fire or perhaps there is no one even on the range. However, when anyone is “DOWN RANGE” the lights should be on. At that time no equipment is to be handled other than target preparation. Even if you are the only one on the range I encourage you to use the lights. Someone could drive up while you are down range and might not see you at first. Safety, First, Last and Always.
