35TH MUZZELOADING RENDEZVOUS

Friday, through Sunday, June 13th, through the 15th, Denny Martin hosted the EF&G 35th Annual Invitational Muzzleloading Rendezvous. Eighteen participants signed up for four walkthrough tasks over two days. Saturdays tasks included one, and two turn Hawk & Knife throws, as well as a rifle walkthrough. The Rifle walk-through consisted of five steel targets on the 100 yd range and five steel targets on the 150 yd range. The range to the targets were "unknown", (that is they were not mounted at the marked range distances), and were roughly 45 yds to 120 yds. All shooting was off-hand and all loading was "from the pouch". The largest target was about the size of our regular sized ML Ram. The smallest target was about the size of a fat sparrow, (and not at the shortest distance). Sundays tasks included a pistol walkthrough over the rifle course minus about 15 yards. That Sparrow got really small over the sights of a black powder pistol..... The Pistol completion was followed by Smoothbore Rifle. Smoothbore had two steel targets at about fifty to sixty yards for five round balls each. This was followed by Smoothbore Trap. For those of you who are avid Trap shooters, consider trying it with a Flintlock, and loading each round by hand as you shoot. Challenging does not describe it. SPAR Member Tom Arendell took top honors overall with 64 points out of 80 possible in four disciplines. During the Awards Ceremony all of the participants got a chance to pickup blanket prizes depending on the order in which they finished. Following the contest all of the participants got to spend an hour or so with hot soapy water,... cleaning their firearms. Such is the joy of Black Powder Firearms.

RANGEMASTER SOUND OFF

By: Tim Geiser – CRSO • www.crsoTim@aol.com

Fire safety. Not an unusual word combination for a firing range, but today I want to take the phrase apart and look at the words separately. Fire, as I choose to use it here refers to the rather nasty way that things can get burned up under the wrong conditions. Given that I am also on the Deer Springs Fire Board, I will admit to being particularly sensitive to things that can happen when certain fire conditions prevail. I am referring to high wind, red flag Santa Anas. These dry winds can pick up a spark and in an instant turn it into a raging inferno. The range itself is actually a fairly safe to be during a wildfire, but a fire starting there could go in virtually any direction with devastating results. We need to go to great lengths to avoid anything of the sort from happening.

A fire extinguisher is located at each range, but will be of limited use in the event of a brush fire. If you are on any range and see any sort of grass fire starting, get water on it as quickly as possible. A water hose will be located at each range. USE IT! Then report it if necessary to the proper authorities.

Actually, there is a better solution. Listen to the weather reports before heading up to the range. If high wind Santa Ana conditions are predicted, you might just want to change your plans and take your wife to a movie or lunch instead. The Board summarily rejected the idea of shutting down the range under those conditions. Their decision leaves me with only the option of appealing to the common sense of the membership to do the right thing. If a dangerous situation can happen, you may be certain that it is only a matter of time until it does. Good sense and safety demands that we minimize any risk to the greatest extent possible.

Lost and Found. A rifle scope and container of long cleaning rods have been left at the range and turned in. Give me a call with the correct description and you may claim them.

Last month I mentioned that Director Cross and I were attempting to reconcile some of the range target rules. At best I find that there is a bit of confusion over how and when various rules apply. We decided to reduce the rules to a graphic representation, which would eliminate or at least minimize any confusion. It turns out that we underestimated the difficulty factor by a factor of... let us say a lot! None the less we will get it done! In the meantime folks, please don't argue with the duty RSO. His/her interpretation will still prevail for the time being.

Here is a short quiz. Surrounding the EF&GA Range is a series of man-gates. Each gate has a combination lock that can be opened in an emergency by any current member. Do you know what that combination is?.....time's up. A silver sticker is issued each year to each member with the four digit combination number. Keep it on your badge (you should wear it at all times as I am sure you remember). That combination number will allow you access you to the gates, the first aid boxes and the club house. Pat yourself on the back if you passed.
