JUNIOR RIFLE MATCH NOVEMBER 12

Sign-ups start on Nov. 4th by phone (760) 432-2089 or email (everettju1@cox.net, subject: jr. rifle) (email is best). Give the shooters 1st and last name and what relay they want. If this is the shooter's first time shooting in our program they will need to take the safety/familiarization class (given that morning) before they can shoot, so ask for 2nd relay. Due to day light savings, THERE WILL ONLY BE FOUR RELAYS. Email or call on the 4th as the relays fill up very quickly.

TURKEY SHOOT NOVEMBER 17

Don't miss the annual Turkey Shoot! Win a Turkey at 16 yards, another at handicap, one on the scatterboard. Come and have good time!

LIFE MEMBER COMMITTEE

Every year the Board of Directors may award two members with Life Membership for their service above and beyond. If you know a member of the Assoc. who has over a period of years done much more than is expected, nominate him/her for LM by writing a brief description on his/her activities and email (or hand it to him) it to one of the members of the Life Member Committee – Frank Alessio, David Burton, or Kenneith Notter.

THE TRAP WING IS FINISHED!

Dave Burton reports that the new Trap building has passed final inspection and is approved for use. It is a great looking asset to the range.

THANKS TO THE OCTOBER DONORS

Jim Rolfes, Bud Smith, Mike Marks, John Harris, Brad Gagnon, Frank & Joyce Alessio, Fred Guse, Jim Fratis, and Leonard Hodges all donated to the table.

FINAL NMC CLASS OF 2012

The last NMC Training class this year will be on the 30th of November, 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm in the clubhouse. Call Kevin Miller @ 760.480.7267 and let him know that you are coming before the 23rd. of November so he can plan for the class.

IT PAYS TO ATTEND A GENERAL MEETING

Game Warden, Ian Baquirin of Cal. Dept. of Fish & Game

was the guest speaker and won the $25 attendance prize and donated it to the junior program. The $100 attendance prize would have been won by David Placek, but he wasn't present. A 2nd drawing was held and Michael Pierce would have won, but not present. The members present voted to donate the $100 to the junior program.

MOM'S CREEK OCTOBER CUSTOM KNIFE WINNERS

Patrick Watson and Craig P. Van are the October winners. It pays to volunteer for rose care, new lawn and general range beautification. Patrick has won three times. The long hot weeks at the end of summer were not kind to the roses or the people caring for them. Fall holds out the anticipation of cooler days for the benefit of both. We are looking for dedicated volunteers to help cultivating, trimming, and pruning the roses. If you love Guns & Roses and want to earn your provisional membership qualifications as well as a chance to win a M1911A1 pistol & custom knives, call Ray Bucholz @ 760.443.1852 to see where your help is needed & for information on how to get your free volunteer tickets. This year Mom's Creek has given out over $2500 in custom knives to our volunteers. Don't miss out! Call Ray today.f

TOYS 4 TOTS

EF&GA is sponsoring Toys 4 Tots again. Bring an unwrapped new toy to the Nov. or Dec. General Meeting. You may also donate via a check made out to EF&GA (with Toys 4 Tots on the memo line). If you have any questions, call Linda Linaker @ 760.638.0573.

RANGEMASTER SOUND OFF

By: Thomas Kendall – CRSO • www.efgarso.org

At this years' Volunteer Appreciation Day (was Range Master Appreciation Day), Mr. Harry Fagan was awarded Range Master of the Year for 2011/2012. Harry has worked Monday mornings for years and still does. Next time you see Harry, give him an Atta-boy for a job well done.

The Escondido Fish and Game Associations' Range Safety Officer/Range Master Corps (RSO's) is an elite group of Association Member's that have been trained in range safety and security. They volunteer their time to assure that the range is safe and secure for all of the Association Members and their Guests.

The Active RSO will work a minimum of one five hour shift a month. The range shifts are:

- 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
- 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- 5:00 p.m. to sunset during summer daylight savings time.

During their shift, the RSO will check the security of the perimeter fence and check the locks on the gates. They will checks all locks on the buildings and note any discrepancies. They sign-in on all ranges at the beginning of their shift and collect any "green sheets" from the previous day.

During their "walkabouts", the RSO's will greet members and their guests and check membership credentials. They will assist members and guests with safety issues and procedures keeping range safety in the fore front of everyone's mind. The RSO will observe members and guests while they are shooting on ranges to assure that proper safety procedures are followed, thus keeping fellow shooters safe and secure.

The majority of the Associations' RSO's have completed the "National Rifle Association's Range Safety Officer Certification" process. The certification process consists of classroom learning experiences and discussions. In the classroom, RSO's learn the basics of NRA range safety and EF&GA safety and security. The individuals completing the classroom have stated that they learned a lot and had a good time doing so.

Becoming an RSO is an easy task. The individual must be conscientious, personable, and safety aware. Call or e-mail the Association Training Coordinator (the Assistant Chief Range Safety Officer), or the Chief Range Safety Officer to answer any questions you may have and set-up a training session. The training session consists of approximately one shift period learning the ranges safety procedures, security procedures and RSO related items. At the end of the training session, the prospective RSO is asked if they would like to become a member of the RSO Corps and do they feel comfortable working on the range. If they say they would like to join the Corps, they are issued the "Red Hat and Tee-Shirt" and a name badge is ordered. Some new RSO's work with other experienced RSO's to become more comfortable and familiar with the procedures. That is an easy thing to do.

When a member becomes a Range Safety Officer, they sign-up for range duty shift's and start having an enjoyable time. Many of our RSO's have made lasting friendships with other RSO's and members. They can learn a lot about firearms and what makes them work. They can learn about many different shooting venues as well. Many of the Associations' RSO also volunteer to help out at sanctioned shooting events: Women on Target, Junior Rifle, Junior Pistol, Trap, etc. This is an interesting and rewarding experience.

Range Safety Tip of the Month. Not really a safety related item, but please take the time to check around your shooting area before you leave the range. There are personal items being left behind by our members and their guests; rifles, shotguns, spotting scopes, binoculars, etc. The problem being, we do not have a secure storage area for these items. And sometimes the items just leave the range.
